

What is the Play Like A Champion program?

We eat, bathe, brush our teeth and exercise on a daily basis. We know the importance of each in leading healthy and productive lives. The Comeback Coach wants to add another “must do” to the daily list. Encourage one another to play like a champion in the game of life in ways that honor us, nurture those dependent upon us and add value to the communities we serve.

Life is tough and the Play Like A Champion program is designed to empower us to help one another. We do this via Pep Talk Partners. Men encouraging men; women encouraging women through short and inspiring Pep Talks given during a daily morning phone call. The calls only need to be 5-10 minutes but are designed to foster a sense of teamwork in challenging one another to run to daylight and play like a champion in the game of successfully handling the challenges that arise daily from this unpredictable journey we call life.

What are the Play Like A Champion Clubs?

The Pep Talk Partners are connected to a larger Play Like A Champion club that will meet socially on a monthly basis. These gatherings will focus on continued support of one another and our communities through service projects selected by PLAC club members.

How does the Comeback Coach support the Play Like A Champion program?

The Comeback Coach will conduct monthly teleseminars with any and all members of the Play Like A Champion program. There will be guest speakers who will also foster the program’s mission to challenge men and women to live a life that honors them, nurtures those dependent upon them and adds value to the communities they serve.

The Comeback Coach will also be available to present his inspirational message to the respective Play Like A Champion clubs around the country and world.

How can people get involved in the Play Like A Champion program?

If interested in learning more, please contact the Comeback Coach @ mark@heycomebackcoach.com. In addition, we can hold a teleseminar for people interested in starting a Play Like A Champion program in your area. Let’s run to daylight and play like a champion in the game of encouraging one another to honor ourselves, nurture those dependent upon us and add value to the communities we serve.